TO ALL HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES:

As you may know, under Title 44 of the United States Code, the Joint Committee on Printing is charged with the responsibility of overseeing the printing and distribution of Federal publications.

Over the years, in an effort to assist Government personnel and those associated with Federal publishing programs, the Joint Committee has published printing and binding regulations. Supplies of the 1977 edition, the most recent adopted by the JCP, have now been exhausted and thus the Committee recently ordered the publication back to press.

Enclosed, please find a reprint of the 1977 Government Printing and Binding Regulations containing updated information and an appendix of several relevant letters issued by the Joint Committee since the edition was last produced. Although there have been no substantive changes to the regulations since 1977, the reprinted version does contain new material which will prove quite useful to those responsible for agency publishing programs.

Should additional copies be needed, the GPO Superintendent of Documents will stock the publication for sale to Government agencies and the general public.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Charles McC. Mathias, Jr.
Chairman
